

Function that maps entities into a vector space where vectors for positive pairs are mapped closer than vectors for negative pairs

